First Annual Portland Police Bureau Youth Summer Camp

Invites kids ages 8-14 to attend its First Annual Portland Police Bureau Youth Summer Camp. Local police officers, high school and college coaches from the surrounding area will work together to make the camp a unique experience for youth. Officers and coaches will work with campers to develop specific sports skills and foster good sportsmanship.

Eligibility

Boys and girls, ages 8-14, who live in the Multnomah, Washington, Clackamas and Clark County areas who believe in good sportsmanship and want to improve their sports and social skills are eligible for Camp.

Portland Police Bureau is dedicated to ensuring that youth from throughout the metropolitan area are able to attend camp. To ensure equal access for youth throughout the area, local school districts receive applications on the same day. Camp is filled on a first come, first serve basis. Payment must be received before placement can occur. Space is limited to 500 campers.

A minimum of 51% of youth must qualify for free or reduced lunch program, however all youth will receive lunch at camp. The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) and the State of Oregon prohibit discrimination in all USDA programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age or disability. To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, Room 326-W, Whitten Building, 14th and Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410 or call (202) 720-5964 (voice and TDD) or (888) 271-5983 Extension 516 (toll free). USDA and the State of Oregon are equal opportunity providers and employers.

Special Thanks

This camp was made possible through the collaborative efforts of the Portland Police Youth Services Division and the Camp Rosenbaum Fund. Their shared commitment to serve the children in the community continues to strengthen the partnership between Camp Rosenbaum and the Portland Police Bureau. PPB and the Rosenbaum Fund would like to thank our partner agencies – Zman Scholarship Foundation, Office of Youth Violence Prevention, Oregon National Guard, MCSO, all area school districts, and community volunteers.
