

- Whereas, Portland's honor, strength and stature can be attributed to the diversity of cultures and traditions that are celebrated by the residents of this great region; and
- Whereas, African Americans have played significant roles in the history of Oregon's economic, cultural, spiritual and political development while working tirelessly to maintain and promote their culture and history; and
- Whereas, as a result of their determination, hard work, intelligence and perseverance, African Americans have made valuable and lasting contributions to Portland and the State of Oregon, achieving exceptional success in all aspects of society, including business, education, politics, science, and the arts; and
- Whereas, in 1976, Black History Month was formally adopted nationally to honor and affirm the importance of Black History throughout the American experience going back hundreds of years; and
- Whereas, Black History Month is a time for all Americans to remember the stories and teachings of those who helped build our nation, took a stance against prejudice to build lives of dignity and opportunity, advanced the cause of civil rights, and strengthened families and communities; and
- Whereas, during Black Month all Americans are encouraged to reflect on past successes and challenges of African Americans and look to the future to continue to improve society so that we live up to the ideals of freedom, equality and justice;

Now, Therefore, I, Sam Adams, Mayor of the City of Portland, Oregon, the "City of Roses", do hereby proclaim February 2010 to be in Portland and encourage all residents to observe this month.
